

Extracted from Halimah Yacob Facebook

October 12

At the opening of the iC2 PrepHouse this afternoon. It is a charity providing counselling, testing, evaluation and other services to children with visual impairment, particularly to help them integrate into the mainstream school. I hope that with this opening, more parents will be aware and will make use of their services.

